Dedication

The smiling gentleman in the picture is known and admired by all students, but fully appreciated only by those whose path brings them close to the essential, everyday machinery of college life. For this reason, and because the annual staff more than any other organization has opportunity to benefit by his friendly interest in student affairs, his patience, and his genial wit, this volume of the Stone Fort is affectionately dedicated to Mr. J. H. Wisely.

College Views

In 1845 the Nacogdoches University was founded and since that time Nacogdoches has been a center of higher education.

Before viewing the buildings of the Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College and the beautiful campus—stop and glance at the Old Nacogdoches University Building. This building was finished in 1859 and is now standing on the Nacogdoches High School Campus.

During the Civil War this building was used as a hospital for the wounded soldiers.

You are ready now to continue the journey around the campus and see our buildings as they stand today.

Stephen F. Austin Building

Nestling among the towering pines the center of scholastic endeavor . . . the realization of an ambition for establishing a school of higher learning for East Texas . . . the beautiful view down the vista . . . couples strolling down the long and shady walks . . . the entrance . . . decisions and decrees issuing from the administrative offices . . . crowds around the bulletin board in the hall . . . commerce majors diligently struggling with typing budgets and accounting problems . . . both idlers and the studious gathered in the Social Room . . . tempting aromas drifting down from the cooking labs . . . on the third floor . . . the auditorium . . . scene of student assemblies . . . dramatic productions, choral club rehearsals and programs, forensic encounters, lyceums, addresses of famous personages visiting the campus . . . odors of H_2S and formaldehyde evidencing labors of chemistry and physiology students on lab days . . . just outside, the elm tree rich in memories of tall tales, campus politics, and vociferous arguments . . . across the walk the Y stand . . . cold drink mecca for perspiring and withering summer students.

Thomas J. Rusk Building

An imposing and beautiful edifice the demonstration school a laboratory for training future teachers student artists gaining inspiration and technique offices of professors shouts from the gymnasium sh! QUIET third floor—LIBRARY industrious student assistants the center desk

. . . . row upon row of books in the stacks reference room walls lined with books historic old treasures in the rare book room lines waiting after 4 o'clock for reserve books the extensive reading rooms offering a resting place for some and a workshop for others quietness and calm reign supreme fairyland and adventure for smaller children in the children's room from the window the playground beyond that the tennis courts and practice field.

Science Building

Continuing ever toward the right, the new Science building . . . aspiration of modern architecture . . . magnificent interior with up-to-date equipment . . . too youthful as yet to hold as many pleasant recollections as the others.

President's Home

Down Clark Boulevard past the historic replica of the Old Stone Fort scenes of skating parties shady walks and cool streams among the trees our president's home its exterior, pleasing and attractive beautiful flowers and shubbery the spacious green lawn scene of numerous parties and receptions inside, an atmosphere of culture and refinement lent by the well chosen furnishings a home of cordiality representing to our students the friendliness of the president and his wife.

Practice House

Past the PRESIDENT'S HOME to an ever beautiful spot on our campus practice house for future home makers colorfully flushed with the green hues of spring and magnificently tinted with fall's array of coloration.

Woman's Recreation Center

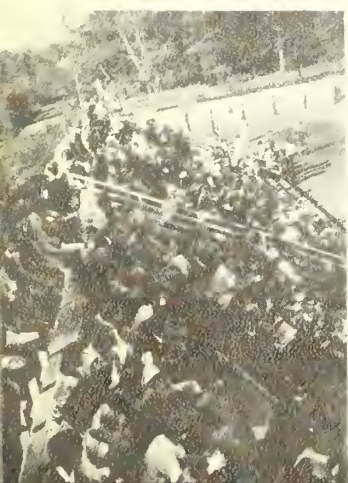

Green leaves, blue sky, red shrubbery, and but a step or two away lies the place of recreation and gaiety . . . parties and dances . . . the place where the campus Venuses are molded . . . you will like to relive in your imagination many colorful all-college dances.

Football Field

Across from the Woman's Recreation Center, the sovereign in memorable scenes of activity . . . proclaimed ruler with its momentous and significant victories . . . yell leaders before the cheering throngs . . . the band drumming out a rhythm of marches.

College Farm

Behind the football field, the efficient college farm contented cattle complete the charmingly rustic scene gently sloping meadows and picturesque haystacks romancers sooner or later yield to the lure of the greensward, lover's lane.

Aikman Gymnasium

Just across the street from the football field, the Aikman gymnasium, co-sharer in athletic honors . . . memorable for lyceum numbers, especially the United States Navy Band concert . . . proving ground for athletes making up the college basketball five.

Band Hall

Surrounded by tall trees, the Band Hall . . . there's silence and quietude here from midnight until about dawn . . . and then, phantasmagoric pandemonium of varying degrees of musical sounds . . . the building echoes with the strains of Alma Mater.

Boy's Dormitory

The pride of the campus in modern equipment and rooms for students across the street is the Main Building equipped with the latest room communication system modern electric coolers on each of the three floors attractive and comfortable rooms for seventy-six boys scene of many hectic hours for the Fish athletes everywhere Coach and Mrs. Willis, successful foster-parents of all seventy-six while they stay in the dormitory day begins students jump into their clothes and rush off to class many hours of work ahead for Will, the janitor the rush back at noon to the cafeteria floating aromas of food from the fashionable, inexpensive cafeteria clattering of dishes and noise of conversation athletes at their training table night comes parties and informal dances in the recreation room all rooms lighted an occasional burst of laughter or heated argument visits and games among the boys eleven o'clock radios off silence interrupted only by occupants returning from nightly activities.

How the Campus Has Progressed

A forty-acre forest of native East Texas pines and oaks, part of the homestead of General Thomas J. Rusk, was donated by the city of Nacogdoches to the youth of Texas, as the site for a teachers college. As a monument to that peerless pioneer of Texas, Stephen F. Austin, the administration building was finished in 1924, and since that time has served as the nucleus around which other buildings of the campus have been clustered.

In the fall of 1926 the college was enlarged to meet an ever increasing enrollment through completion of the Thomas J. Rusk Building, which houses the library and demonstration school. Athletic interest was furthered through the gift of the Aikman Gymnasium, a substantial wooden structure with a basket ball court, large stage, and seating capacity of more than 3,500.

Women's recreational activities were given a chance for better development in 1935, when the Woman's Recreation Center, with its large gymnasium, modern showers and dressing rooms, kitchenette, reading-room and offices, was constructed.

The boy's dormitory, accommodating seventy students, and housing the college cafeteria, was finished in 1936, and with its modern architecture and up-to-date interior equipment is a valuable addition to the campus. The new band hall was thankfully moved into the same year.

The new Practice House is a more recent addition to the college equipment, and furnishes a splendid opportunity for home economics majors to acquaint themselves with every problem of homemaking.

A long-felt need has been answered in the construction of the Science Building, which, with its separate and complete laboratories for physics, chemistry, and biology departments, provides the incentive to accomplish bigger things in analytical lines. It has been gratefully accepted by all scientifically-minded students.

In addition to the above-mentioned buildings, the campus also includes a power house, football field, tennis courts, and college farm.

Administration

Educators endeavoring to train future teachers, to impart social effectiveness, and to develop thinking ability . . . expressing philosophies . . . dispensing facts, knowledge and theories . . . the administration aiding students in planning their courses of study . . . the deans interested in developing social activities . . . officials solving problems of expenditure and management . . . striving for betterment and improvement of the school in everyway . . . on the golf course of the country club many of our professors spend their leisure hours . . . hunting, fishing, and checkers occupy others when work is done . . . lectures . . . exams . . . jokes told year after year . . . all in all, we have a "swell" group of professors.

A. W. Birdwell, President

From the very first year of the College, the STONE FORT has painted a faithful picture of its activities. As the years go by students appreciate more and more the college annual. Looking back over it they find the faces of fellow students and suggestions of activities that meant perhaps more than formal study. The year 1937-1938 has been another one of progress. Improvements on the campus give promise of better service in the future. The course of study is being constantly revised to meet the needs of students. There is no reason why the past should not be regarded with pride and the future faced with confidence. It all depends on what the students do with the information acquired and the disciplines to which they have been subjected. It is my hope that each one will carry away from the College a genuine respect for it and an increasing consciousness of responsibility that come from participating in its activities. The College tries to think that it has a mission, and that mission is to furnish the altar from which coals will be carried to all sections of East Texas. Its prayer is that the students who go out from the College Among the Pines will be a benediction to the young life of East Texas, and will exert real influence in solving the problems of society in such a way that a finer civilization may be guaranteed to all the people.

A. W. Birdwell, President.

Deans' Messages

"The adventure of life is the quest of the unknown, in the search of which our best guides are knowledge, integrity, health and the outlook of youth. These it is the end of education to acquire, cherish, guard, and preserve."

Dr. Thomas E. Ferguson, Dean of Faculty

"The truly happy person is the one who can afford the luxury of remembering his past. My wish for you is that in the years to come you can look back upon your days in S. F. A. as truly happy days. Get everything out of each day as it comes. Keep your feet on the ground, your chins up and your eyes open."

Mr. C. E. Ferguson, Dean of Men

"Another year in passing leaves its record here. Do these pages reflect for YOU the spirit of S. F. A.? College spirit is infinitely more than yelling for your team at athletic events. If you have caught here something of the spirit of learning, the spirit of service, and the spirit of truth, life has become enriched not only for you, but also for those whose lives you touch,—and this is a better school because you came."

The Sawyers

The Sawyers is an organization founded on the pine-covered campus of Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College for the purpose of supporting the fighting Lumberjacks in every kind of athletic contest. The organization also tries to help promote a true SFA spirit among the various college groups. Members of the Sawyers strive to encourage the development of worthwhile campus activities along with their academic activities. The organization stands ready to assist any movement which has as its object the advancement of our college; in doing so, the members carry out the motto of the club: "For the Lumberjacks and SFA, Win-Lose-or-Draw."

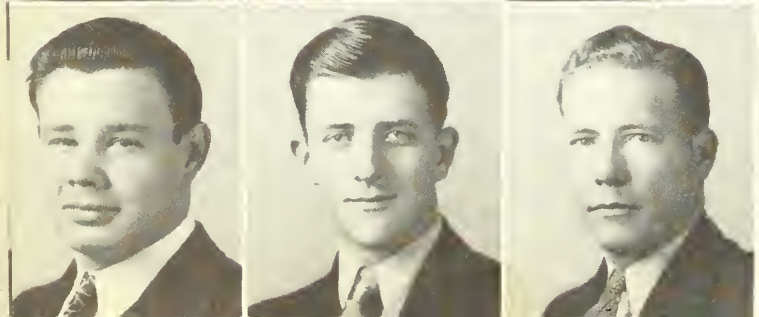

New members are selected by invitation and must be voted on by the members of the organization.

Pins are being bought this year for the first time and a special Sawyer homecoming is being arranged for May 21st.

May the Sawyers in the future carry on and uphold the spirit and honor of the fighting Lumberjacks.

The Biology Club was organized early in the fall of 1937, and its members numbered forty-six within two weeks after its first meeting. The highlights of the year were the "Scavenger Hunt," the "Treasure Hunt," and the formal dance. Much of the success of the organization is due to the influence and cooperation of Dr. Hal B. Parks.

The club hopes to create an interest in the biology department of the college and to be able to join a national society for students interested in biology and its related sciences.

Although the organization is one for students of the sciences, it is not interested altogether in academic endeavor. It has its social functions and tries to create a friendly spirit of cooperation among students and faculty members.

Resumé of 1937-38 Debate Season

At the inception of the 1937-38 debate season, only three experienced debaters reported to Coach L. C. Harling. Gorman McMullen, Griff Terry Ross, and Harlon Martin launched their second year as college debaters. Freshmen recruits were Tom Reavley, III, Dan Hinds, regional champions of 1937, Bergman Morrison, and A. W. Bell, Jr. who also had achieved enviable records in High School forensics.

Tournaments attended during the season by the squad were those sponsored by Baylor University, Waco, Southwest Texas State Teachers College, San Marcos, Louisiana Normal, Natchitoches, Louisiana, and the Mid-South tourney at Arkadelphia, Arkansas. The season was climaxed by a trip to the National Convention of Pi Kappa Delta at Topeka, Kansas.

For the first time in the history of the college, the debate squad sponsored an interscholastic forensic tournament, the Piney Woods Debate Tourney, which was attended by representatives of numerous schools in this vicinity and which was declared a success.

In addition to the ordinary debate squad, the college maintains the Texas Mu Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, a national honorary forensic fraternity. Officers of the chapter during the year were Griff Terry Ross, President; Harlon Martin, Vice-President; Gorman McMullen, Secretary-Treasurer; and other active members were Harold Wisely, Dr. T. E. Ferguson, and Coach Harling. New members inducted into the chapter at the end of the season were Dan Hinds, Tom Reavley, A. W. Bell, and Bergman Morrison.

Who's Who

Important are the positions held by Woodrow "Honest John" Baker. Included in that number are the presidencies of the Senior class and the Loggers and business managership of The Stone Fort. This math major and Sawyer from Livingston has a "cut and dried" method of handling his lady friends that has worked for years—as well as attaching the title, "Candy-Boy" to Baker.

"He wasn't gonna play basketball," but Coach Shelton changed the mind of Vernon "Gus" Barron, sophomore from Carlisle who has become outstanding as a regular guard of the Lumberjack quint. In mid-season Barron received a shoulder injury that put him out of the playing for a few games. This handsome sportsman also claims membership in the Sawyers and Loggers organizations.

Ernest "Knob" Ford is one who stands high in the ranks of campus leaders. His striking personality has ever brought him popularity on this campus. He is President of the Sawyers and The Biology club; he is serving as Business Manager of The Pine Log, a position he has filled through three editorships; he is a track man, a wearer of the "T," a Logger, a "Jaycee," the Sawyer representative in College Commission, a popular song lyric writer, and an art editor of The Stone Fort.

James "Flash" Fuller, Pine Log Editor characterized by his hat, bow tie, and pipe, holds the presidencies of the Junior Class and the Press Club. His natural friendliness and ability has made him publicity manager as well as an executive committeeman of the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association. He, as a charter member of the Loggers, was elected secretary-treasurer. He is sports editor of The Stone Fort, and has membership in the Sawyers, Accounting Club and the Nacogdoches Junior Chamber of Commerce. "Flash" is also a member of the College Commission executive committee. On the side, he substitutes for vacationing staff members of the town newspapers.

Head cheer leader, Janie Green, was elected most-popular girl on the campus during her sophomore and junior years, and rightly so, even if she has chosen Don L. Hough, from among her many admirers, as keeper of her heart. Janie is a Lumberjackette, a beauty nominee, and a member of the Piney Woods Sports Association. She is active in sports and a social leader.

John "Percy" Hanna, Stephen F. Austin's choice for favorite boy, is the efficient president of two major organizations: the Young Men's Christian Association and the Accounting Club. His executive ability and his occupation as keeper of the bookroom has won for him the title "Captain" John. This Nacogdoches boy is a senior, majoring in Business Administration.

Lawrence "Grease Ball" Hough, the other captain, has played good football for three seasons in spite of a serious injury in the A and M game last year. This member of the "T" Association sports a mustache and reigns over the gate at athletic encounters.

Andrew Little was co-captain of the 1937 football team. "Andy" completed his fourth year of Stephen F. Austin football this last season as chief ball carrier of the Lumberjacks. He was also chief escort of the football Queen, Evie Gray. "Andy" is a Sawyer and a member of the "T" Association.

Filling executive positions is a daily occurrence with Harlon "Prexy" Martin. As president of the student body, the highest ranking political position on the campus, Harlon presides over the College Commission. Along with that important position go the presidencies of the A. W. Birdwell chapter of Alpha Chi and the Austinites. Among the Barristers and Pi Kappa Deltas, this first ranking Stephen F. Austin debater is known as vice-president.

Guy "Red" Massey is Stephen F. Austin's pride on the basketball court. A three year letterman, "Red" is outstanding in the Lone Star conference. In line with his athletic career, Massey coaches the Demonstration School basketball team and plays ping-pong. He belongs to the "T" Association, of course. On the side, there is the corner filling station and a host of admirers to occupy his time.

Marshall "Matty" Matteson is the sophomore forward who reached high in scoring honors this season. He is an industrious student well liked by all his associates. From his looks in the picture, this man of basketball will continue to threaten all scoring records if not break them.

A leader with the welfare and progress of Stephen F. Austin at heart is Maxine Mitchell. She is president of the Young Women's Christian Association and represented that organization and the college at the National Assembly of Student Christian Associations at Oxford, Ohio, during the Christmas holidays. Maxine represents the Lumberjackettes in College Commission and has membership in the Amitie social organization.

Culminating four years of work on the annual staff with the editorship of the 1938 edition, Francile Morrison, "Francy" to friends, has attained a position among the select of Stephen F. Austin. This Commerce-English major demonstrates her executive ability by holding presidential positions in two important campus organizations, the Lumberjackettes and the Baptist Students Union—and represents the latter in the College Commission.

"Queen of Strut" was the title given to Mary Osborne, drum-major of the Lumberjack Band, when the local musicians took a prominent part in the annual Rose Festival in Tyler last fall. Mary was selected by the Sawyers as a beauty nominee for The Stone Fort. She is an Amitee, the secretary of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic honor society, a member of the Karle Wilson Baker Dramatic and the Biology Clubs.

Jack Rodgers is outstanding among the music students on the campus. When the Austonians, local dance orchestra, needs an arrangement, J. Delos makes one for them. In that orchestra Jack chases his fingers over the pino keys; at various other times he plays a violin, a bass violin, trombone, alto and practically all the other brass instruments. He belongs to every musical organization on the campus such as the Band, and the Madrigal and Choral Clubs. Jack is a copy writer on The Stone Fort staff and the designer of many of the Dramatic Club production sets. When an accompanist is needed Jack Rodgers is found.

Pi Kappa Delta's president is Griff Terry "Dimples" Ross, pre-medical student with unusual talents and a variety of campus positions. He is vice-president of the Biology Club, a Barrister and a member of the Martin-Ross debate team. While in Galveston last fall, Griff was elected to the Theta Kappa Psi Medical fraternity. He is an Austinite and plays a saxophone in the Band. As the accordion player of the famed "Campus Ramblers," Griff broadcast over Longview's station KFRO and Kilgore's station KOCA last fall.

Mary Sharpe's remarkable number of good qualities make her universally liked. She presides at Pine Burr meetings and represents that club in the College Commission. The Loggers chose Mary as their beauty nominee and she holds the title of "Miss Nacogdoches of 1937." The senior class editorship of The Stone Fort is also filled by this Nacogdoches girl. An excellent dancer and a good sport, Mary is a possessor of many friends.

A fun-loving and likable athlete is Earl Shanks. He has won the admiration and respect of Stephen F. Austin with his accomplishments on the football field and track. This wearer of the "T" is also a student of good standing, well liked by the faculty as well as being extremely popular with the students.

Langford "Lanky" Warren's track record is nothing less than remarkable, having performed enough feats on the cinders to require pages to name them. At a tackle position on the football team he won the acclaim of the spectators many times. "Lanky" is majoring in Agriculture thus accounting for his membership in the Aggie Club. Likable and lanky is "Lanky" Warren.

One who carries her many honors with dignity and modesty is Wilma "Queenie" Watkins. Her record speaks for itself. She is secretary and sophomore class representative in the College Commission, assistant editor of The Pine Log, feature editor of The Stone Fort, vice-president of the Press Club and the Woman's Council, a member of the Dramatic Club, Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic society, Pine Burrs, and the Piney Woods Sports Association. The Barristers selected Wilma as their beauty nominee, and she reigned as Queen of the 1937 P. W. S. A. Carnival. As Stephen F. Austin's representative, Wilma attended the Coronation Ball in Huntsville, March 5. In the Band, this Nacogdoches girl twirls a baton, and during her leisure time she reads the magazine, Leisure.

A student on the campus for twelve years is Harold "Money Bags" Wisely—from the first grade in Demonstration School to a sophomore ranking in college. He represents the national debater's society, Pi Kappa Delta, in the College Commission, and is treasurer of the Baptist Students Union. Harold is a member of The Stone Fort staff, a veteran clarinet player in the Lumberjack Band and holds membership in the Accounting and Biology Clubs. Swinging a tennis racquet occupies his spare time.

How the Favorites Were Chosen

Ted Shawn selected the beauties—four among the fifteen. Mr. Shawn and his group of men dancers appeared in a program in Davis Gymnasium, early in December. At that time he submitted his choice of four to the annual editor.

"I am very glad to be asked to select your beauties," said Mr. Shawn upon being asked to judge.

"I wanted to select them all," he revealed when his task was done.

Stephen F. Austin favorites were given the title of "Mr." and "Miss SFA" in an election conducted by the student body of the Piney Woods College.

Eight boys and eight girls were nominated for the titles by the four classes.

SFA's Who's Who was selected by a vote of all the professors. Students receiving the largest number of votes were honored in this year's Stone Fort. Personality, school spirit, friendliness, ability, and other traits were considered by the professors.

Coaching Staff

A builder of men—Coach W. W. Dossey deserves such a title. Every athlete that has donned the Purple and White of Stephen F. Austin college finds Coach Dossey's name etched deep into their hearts. He has imbued the battles of life and football into countless Axemen warriors. Coach Dossey has the responsibility of building and directing the Lumberjack line in the gridiron sport. Stephen F. Austin is indeed fortunate in having such a man as Coach Dossey on its coaching staff.

A newcomer to the SFA campus is Ralph Murff, former Centenary College star. During the short time that Coach Murff has been connected with "the pine tree school" as backfield coach he has gained many friends. He is full of the desire to build a winning Lumberjack eleven and his efforts have won the respect and admiration of all who know him.

In 1923 the citizens of Nacogdoches built among the stately pines of East Texas a college and christened it Stephen F. Austin College. Years later that institution gained nationwide attention because of its many outstanding basketball teams. The Lumberjacks' fame has traveled near and far, and many have been credited for their achievements, but those who follow the court game know that a small solemn-faced man by the name of R. H. Shelton is the man behind the wheel.

Through his untiring efforts the Lumberjack basketball teams have finished on top of the Lone Star conference ladder five times out of the last six years.

Coach Bob was recruited from Southwest Texas at San Marcos to take the roll of Athletic Director of SFA in 1923. He has held this position since that time. Quiet and modest and a natural builder of men, Mr. Shelton always attributes his success solely to "the boys." Coach Bob has gained the respect and friendship of every student in Stephen F. Austin.

When Coach Eugene H. White, for eight years head grid mentor at SFA, left the local campus to return to his Alma Mater, Washington and Lee, to act as assistant coach, the administration of SFA sought the services of a capable and efficient coach to take his place. Their selection was J. E. (Red) Willis, former coach at Texarkana Junior College and star back at Texas Christian University. Although Coach Willis has been at SFA only a short time, he has proven himself to be a "regular fellow" and is well liked by the student body. That Coach Willis has unusual ability in the realm of coaching football is unquestionable. His followers predict many many banner years for him and his Axemen.

Yell Leaders

Handling pep rallies, leading yells at the football and basketball games, journeying with the teams as much as possible and promoting pep and school spirit on the College campus are the duties of the yell leaders.

The yell leaders led the students on two eventful trips this year, a football trip to Beaumont by special train, and a basketball trip to Huntsville by chartered bus.

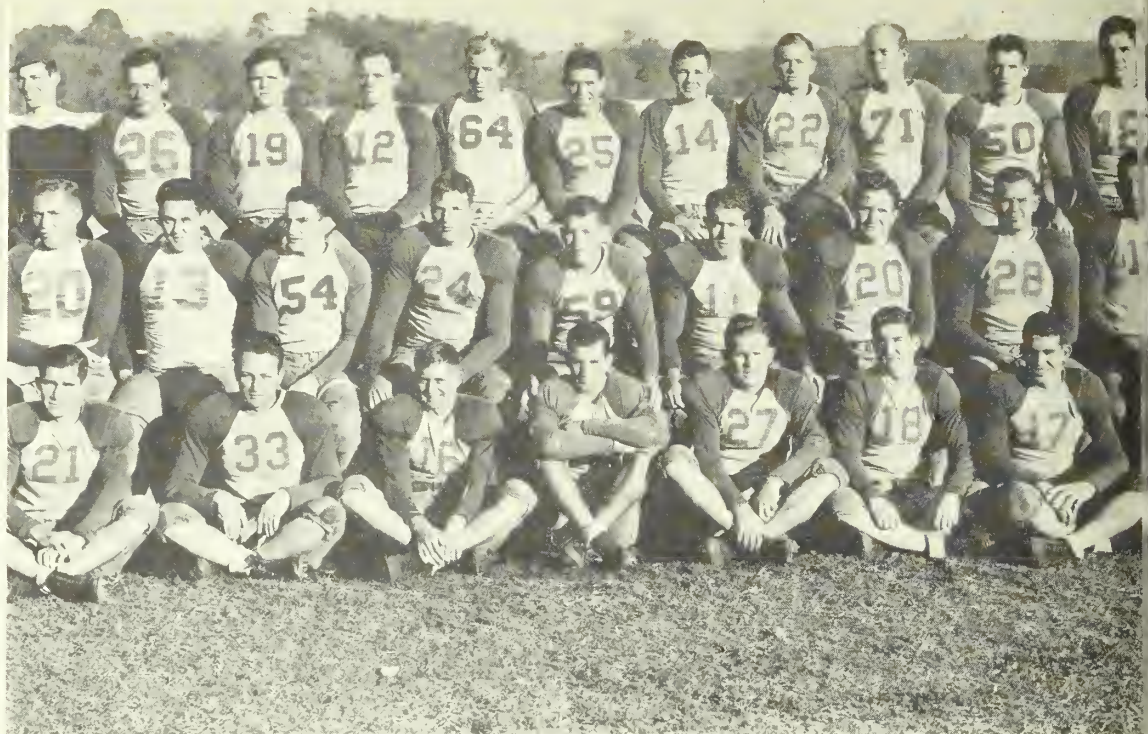

During the past year Janie Green was head yell leader with Nettie Lee Poore, D. K. (Pat) Hamilton, and Bergman (Boots) Morrison as assistants.

The cooperation and spirit of the 1937-1938 yell leaders in backing the Lumberjack teams has been appreciated by the entire student body.

Résumé of 1937 Season

JACKS DROP FIRST ENCOUNTER TO SLI

In their initial encounter the Axemen dropped a heartbreaking defeat to the Southwest Louisiana Institute Bulldogs of Lafayette, on October 2, by the score of 7 to 6. The 'Jacks outplayed the Pelican State aggregation in every department, piling up 14 first downs to 9 for the Dogs. The locals struck paydirt in the first stanza when Andy Little streaked across the last line from the 10-yard stripe for the first touchdown of the hectic battle. Lawrence Hough's attempted conversion was blocked.

The SLI score came in the third period when Gunter circled the Willismen's left end from the 30-yard marker to chalk up the Bulldogs' lone touchdown. Gunter's conversion proved to be the margin of victory.

CONFERENCE CHAMPS SMOTHER AXEMEN 33-0

Greatly outplayed and outclassed, the Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks fought in vain on Birdwell Field, October 8, to stop the powerful East Texas Lions from Commerce, but emerged on the small end of a 33-0 score. Twenty-five hundred spectators witnessed Johnnie Garrison take the opening kickoff on the 10-yard stripe and race 90 yards for a touchdown that started the fireworks for the East Texans. The Lions continued their scoring spree throughout the second and third cantos but were bottled up by the locals in the last frame.

The 'Jacks made various touchdown drives throughout the game but by many fumbles marred their chances to score.

LAMAR CARDS HAND AXEMEN 10-6 LICKING

On October 14, five hundred Lumberjack rooters boarded a special train which conveyed them to the South Texas city of Beaumont. The occasion was the second meeting of the SFA gridiron warriors and the Lamar Junior College Cardinals.

Outplaying their larger opponents throughout the game the Cardinals took the SFAites into camp by the score of 10-6.

The Cards' passing attack completely baffled the Lumberjacks as they piled up 110 yards from their aerials. Frequent Axemen fumbles marred the locals' chance for victory.

EAGLES HOLD LUMBERJACKS TO 6-6 TIE

Two sudden breaks enabled the Lumberjacks and the North Texas Eagles of Denton to battle to a 6-to-6 deadlock before a homecoming day crowd of 1,600 persons on Birdwell Field, October 22.

The Lumbermen scored first midway the third quarter when Leroy McPhail, veteran center, intercepted Hester's pass and scampered 60 yards down the sideline for a touchdown. Barwick's attempted conversion was blocked. The stage for the tying touchdown was laid with six minutes to play in the fourth quarter. Standing behind his own goal, Deason punted poorly to the Eagles on the Lumberjack 10-yard line. Hester passed to Johns for the touchdown, but Mitchell's extra point try failed as the tally remained tied, 6-to-6.

SAN MARCOS WINS 26-6

On October 29th, the SFA gridiron team journeyed to San Marcos to contest the Southwest Texas Bobcats and were trounced 26-to-6 in a rough and tumble affair. Bobby Holloway, Cat running ace, scored the first touchdown on a 7-yard end run after a 50 yard march.

Holloway made the next two scores in the third quarter, going over guard 2 yards after a 70 yard drive and over tackle for 1 yard after Gid Campbell, Cat end, blocked a 'Jack punt on the seven.

The lone Lumberjack tally came in the last quarter when Andy Little returned a punt 70 yards for a score.

JACKS WIN 2-0 CONTEST FROM LOUISIANA NORMAL

The locals broke ice on November 6, when they defeated the highly-touted Louisiana Normal Demons 2 to 0 in Natchitoches, Louisiana. The entire Axemen eleven starred in the encounter, as the Demons crossed the 50 yard stripe only once.

The 'Jack score came midway in the final stanza when Emory (Butch) Deason quick-kicked over the Normal safety to place the ball on the Demon 8 yard line. On the next play a bad pass from center sent the oval swirling over the goal line where Loomis, Normal back, covered the ball, as a swarm of Purple and White jerseys tackled him behind paydirt.

JAVELINA PASSING ATTACK CLICKS AS 'JACKS LOSE 33-6

Displaying a powerful passing and running attack that hit its stride in the third period by scoring four touchdowns, the Texas A. & I. Javelinas, from Kingsville, rooted the Lumberjacks by a score of 33 to 6 in a non-conference clash on Birdwell Field, November 25.

The Hogs held a 7-0 lead over the Woodsmen at half time; however, they returned to the fracas at the beginning of the third quarter and completely baffled the Lumbermen with their long aerial attack.

The local's lone score came in the fading minutes of the encounter when Malcome Johnstone passed from the 18 yard stripe to Jimmie Jones for the marker.

'JACKS DROP 8-0 TILT TO BEARCATS

For the first time in ten years, Coach Mollie Crawford's Sam Houston Bearcats defeated the SFA Lumberjacks on Birdwell Field when they handed the Axemen an 8-to-0 setback Thanksgiving Day, November 25, before 2,000 spectators.

Swede Hill, driving backfield star from Houston, proved the sparkplug in the Huntsville rear cordon as he passed to Callahan from the 47 to the 10, then hit the 'Jack forward wall for the only touchdown of the game. Barnett failed to convert. The marker came in the first quarter.

Late in the final period, Malcome Johnstone attempted to pass from behind his own goal line but was smothered for a safety by Seldon Broughton, Kat wingman.

The locals drove deep into the Prison City's territory on various occasions; however, fumbles and penalties marred their chances to score.

The Woodsmen threatened in the final canto on a passing attack, Johnston to Watson Myers, but the drive flunked on the 20 when the 'Jacks fumbled.

Although the locals dropped the fracas they were on top in first downs by 7-to-6.

Even though the Lumberjacks cannot call the season a success from the standpoint of wins and losses, what many ardent supporters deemed a new era in Stephen F. Austin football was begun. In the first place, many of the stars of the '36 team were missing from the line-up. Then the boys were forced to master a new system of football under the tutelage of J.E. Willis, who came down from Texarkana Junior College to replace Gene White as head mentor. Ralph Murph, a former Centenary College gridiron great, was employed as assistant coach to aid Willis in molding the 'Jack machine.

A long and torrid practice grind was begun in mid-September to get the Axemen in top form for the opening fiasco with the Southwest Louisiana Institute Bulldogs. On the opening night the 'Jacks unleashed a passing attack and tore through the Bulldog line with a viciousness that provoked fond hope from the most pessimistic 'Jack supporters. The Louisianians are always a thorn in the side of the Axemen and after the smoke had cleared, prospects for a winning team loomed bright for the purple and white. However, the Axemen encountered tough sledding most of the remainder of the season.

With their proteges in tiptop condition, Coaches Willis and Murph sent them into battle with the strong East Texas aggregation on October 8. Outplayed and outclassed, the 'Jacks were the victim of a 33-to-0 shellacking, a defeat which they never seemed to get over throughout the season. The East Texans, boasting one of the strongest teams in the history of the Conference, took all comers with comparative ease, with a rugged line backed up by such leather luggers as Defee, Tully and Garrison.

After the debacle with the East Texans, the Lumbermen could never get to clicking. Injuries laid Captain Hough on the shelf most of the remainder of the season along with several other mainstays. A number of newcomers donned the purple and white uniform for the first time, being transfers from Junior colleges, hindering considerably the smoothness of the 'Jack eleven because they had not played with the Lumbermen before.

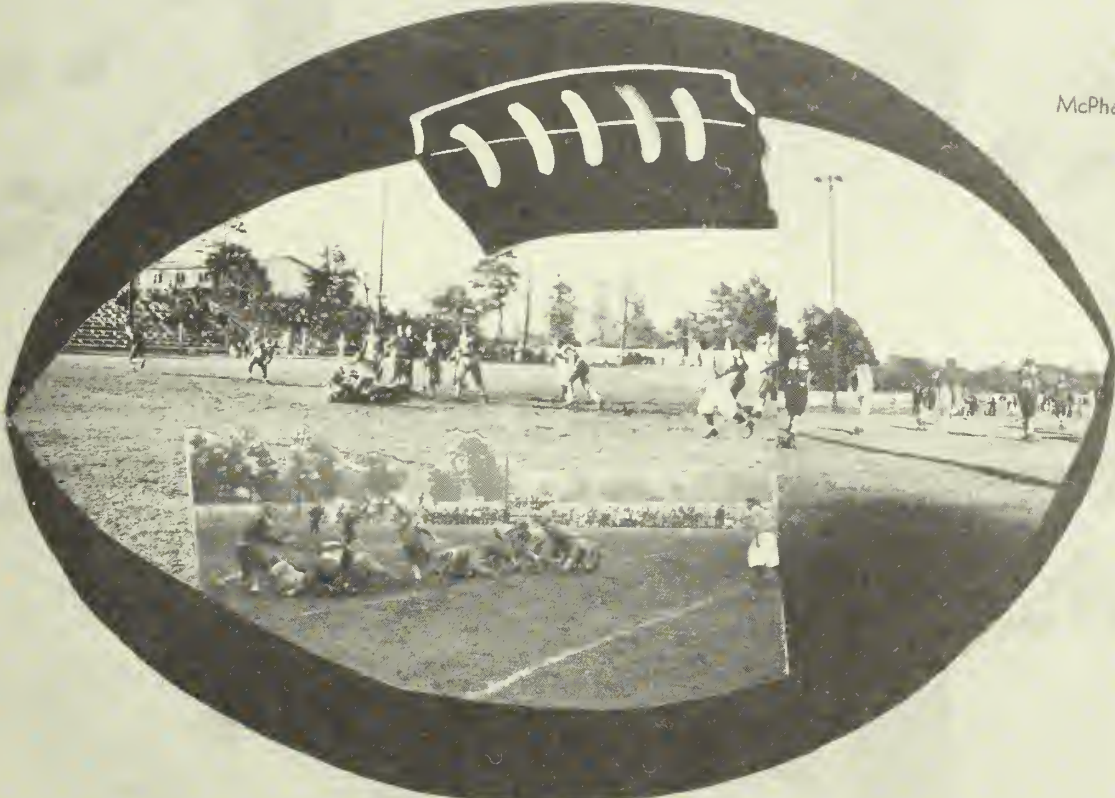

However, prospects for the 1938 season are fairly promising. Coach Willis will lose several of his mainstays but a flock of promising freshmen along with a number of transfers will undoubtedly bolster the 'Jack Eleven for the coming year.

Operations were underway to plow up and re-sod the playing field. Soft ball players and fans will be forced to look for another pasture during the coming summer but will gladly do so in order that a better sod be provided for the Lumbermen to fall on next year. Plans for building a new stadium are also being formulated, their outcome depending on the passage of the current spending bill in Congress.

AXEMEN WIN CONFERENCE OPENERS FROM SAN MARCOS 42-23; 38-32

Coach Bob Shelton's Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks blasted the 1938 conference lid off with a roar by handing the Southwest Texas basketballers two straight defeats, 42-23; 38-32. The first encounter was played in San Marcos on January 10, and the second fracas was staged in Aikman Gymnasium January 18. Watson Myers was high point man in the first clash with 13 markers. Marshall Matteson zipped the mesh for 15 chalkers to lead the 'Jacks in the second game.

LOCALS DOWN LIONS 44-42

In a thrill-packed court drama that left 1,500 fans limp at the final gun, a fighting Lumberjack basketball team kept intact its perfect record in the Lone Star Conference by repulsing the East Texas State Teachers College Lions from Commerce Friday night, January 21, in Aikman Gymnasium 44 to 42. Guy Massey with 17 markers and Pascal Haney and Marshall Matteson with 13 each placed the sensational 'Jack attack.

SAM HOUSTON TROUNCES AXEMEN 46-26

It was too much Bearcats, February 7, and the SFA basketballers fell before a rampant Sam Houston attack to the tune of 46 to 26. Before the Axemen ever knew they were on the floor, the sharp-shooting Bearcats tore away to a 11 to 2 lead and held a decisive margin until the final whistle. Captain Massey's seven points and Matteson's five were high for the losing 'Jack offense.

NORTH TEXAS SHADES WOODSMEN IN 40 TO 36 OVERTIME GAME

A guy named Smith broke 1,500 fans' hearts in Aikman Gymnasium February 10, and it was not his good looks that did the trick.

In a nerve-tingling court drama that required two extra periods to determine, the elongated Eagle forward came through with two field goals in the final extra stanza to give his mates a 40 to 36 decision over the Lumberjacks in the first defeat for the Axemen in Aikman Gym since 1931.

Playing without the services of Captain Red Massey, an influenza victim, and Vernon Barron, handsome guard, the Lumberjack sophomore five fought their way to an early 5 to 3 lead over the Denton lads. However, the North Texas crew came back strong to lead by 20 to 18 at intermission. The game ended in a 32-32 deadlock. The second overtime period ended at 35-all; however, that guy Smith dropped in two field goals during the second extra period and Jones added a shot from the 15 foot line to give the visitors the win.

LOSSES IN COMMERCE AND DENTON DETHRONE 'JACKS

After six long years the Lone Star Conference basketball crown toppled from the heads of the Stephen F. Austin College Lumberjacks. The crown, growing a little heavy on a crippled, sophomorish quintet, was lifted only after some furious court play February 14 and 15 in Commerce and Denton where the Axemen bowed to the East Texas quintet 67 to 62 and the North Texas crew 33 to 26.

Captain Massey played only a few minutes in the Commerce game, but did not enter the Denton battle. Also out of the lineup was Vernon Barron, injured guard.

Matteson made 23 points for the Axemen and Haney came through with 14 and Myers 11 in the Commerce encounter.

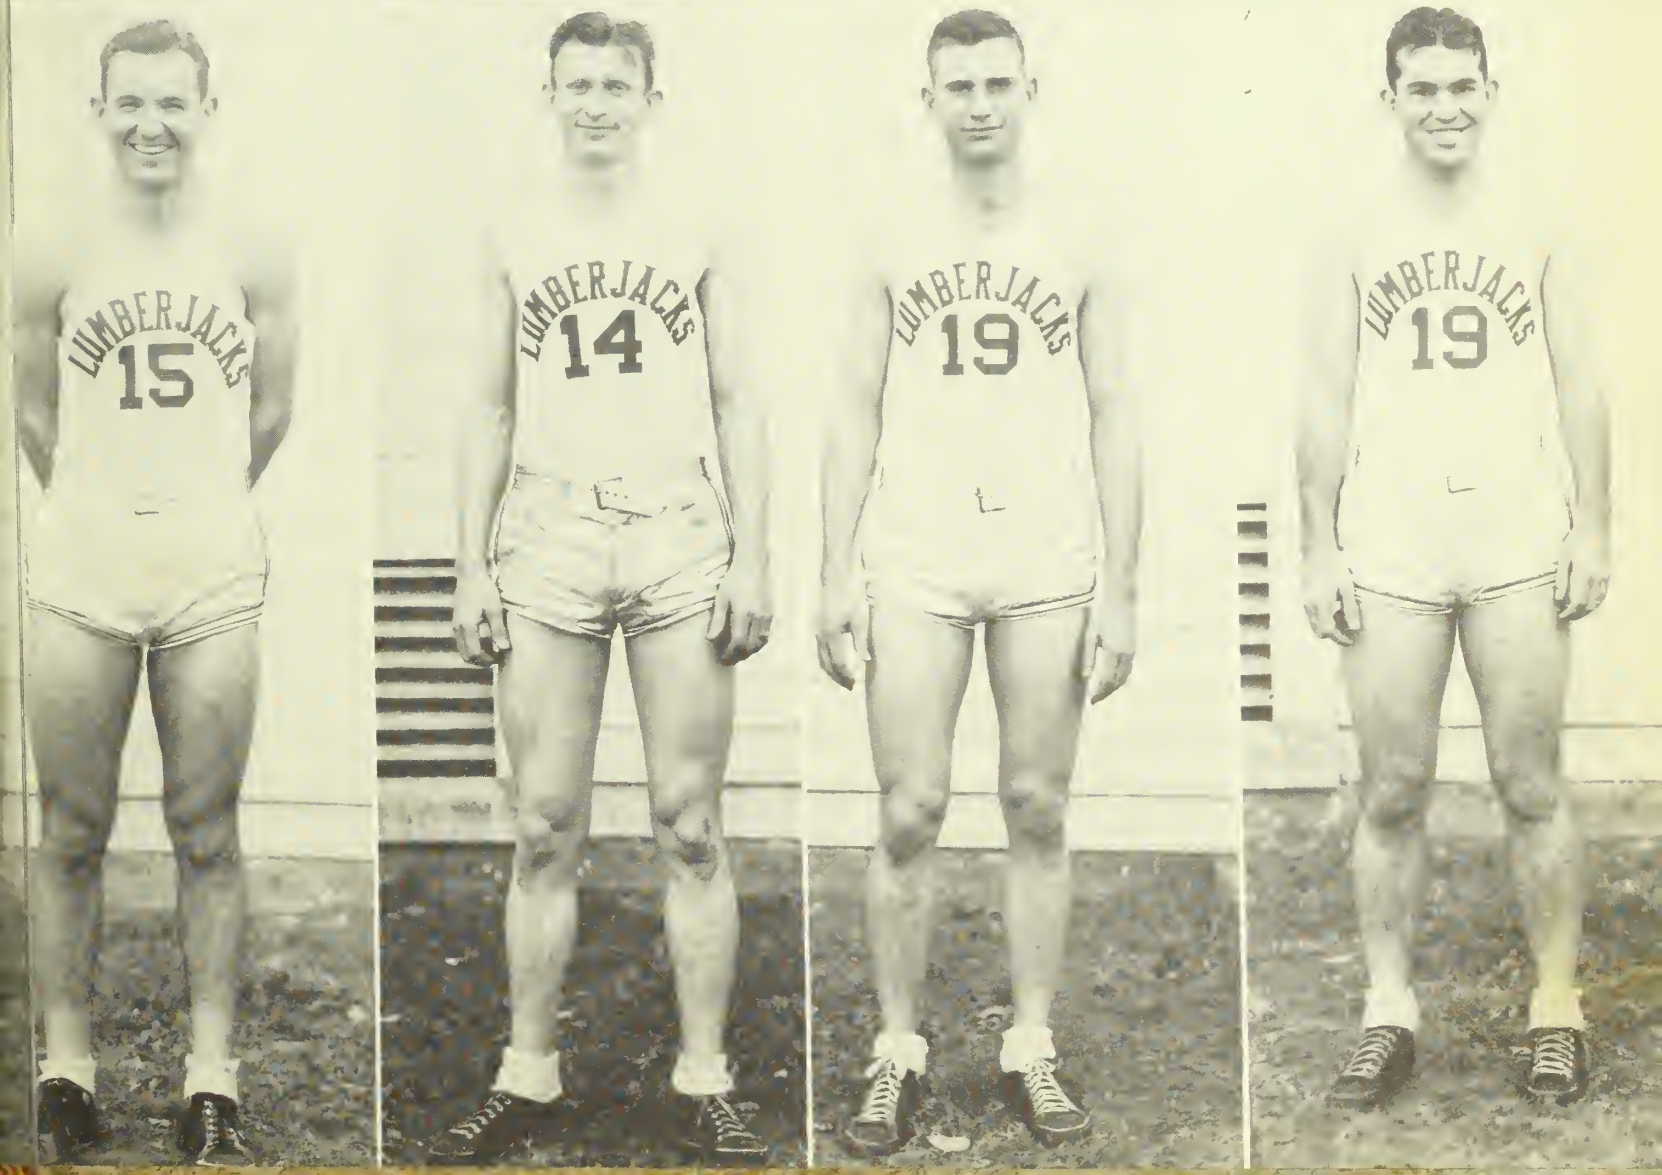

Big guns for the Lumberjacks in the Denton clash were effectively stilled by the North Texans. Myers led the Purple attack with 11 markers.

AXEMEN END SEASON WITH 39-32 WIN OVER SAM HOUSTON

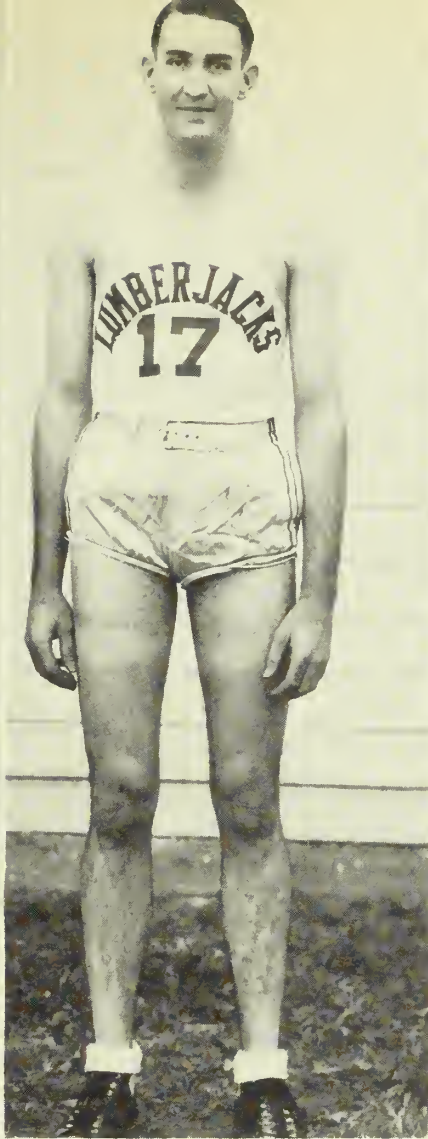

In a thrill-packed encounter that was witnessed by 2,000 spectators, Coach Shelton's SFA basketball team defeated their arch-rivals, the Sam Houston Bearkats, by the score of 39 to 32 in Aikman gymnasium February 25. The game was the last LSC encounter for both teams. The victory placed the local cagers in second place in the LSC with four games won and four lost.

The Bearkats led 21 to 19 at the half; however, Haney dropped in a field goal during the early minutes of the second period to tie up the game at 21-all. The encounter was knotted up five times during the last canto.

With nine and one-half minutes left in the fracas, the Bearkats held a 28-26 lead over the Woodsmen, but the locals soon tied up the game at 31-all. Matteson, Haney, and Massey zipped the mesh for field goals to send the Sheltonmen into a commanding lead of 37 to 31 as the timer's clock registered one and one-half minutes of playing time. Matteson dropped in a last-minute field goal to ice up the game. Billie White, half-pint forward for the Prison City five, made a free shot to end the scoring for the night.

Haney led the local scoring with 13 chalkers. C. Dotson was high for the losers with 8.

On Saturday, February 3, Coach Bob Shelton received from Leoncio Ochoa, coach of Mexico City's Y. M. C. A. basketball team, an invitation requesting the Purple and White basketeers to participate in the International Basketball Tournament in Mexico City on March 6-13.

Injuries and illness on the Lumberjack roster at the tourney caused the locals to be eliminated; however, the trek was of lasting interest to the nine players that made the trip, they reported.

Baseball was revived at the Piney Woods school in 1937. This year the Purple and White diamond performers possessed one of the most outstanding college nines in Texas. The locals played numerous games with outstanding college and semi-pro teams. Coaches J. E. (Red) Willis and Ralph Murff handled the club.

Although the Lumberjack track squad of 1938 was not so well balanced, several men were able to gather in points in most of the meets.

Among the most consistent of these point-getters were Langford Warren, speedster from Beckville, who participated in the dashes, Jack Porter, Ernest Ford, Ralph and Walter Todd, Chester Hawkins, Leroy McPhail, Marion Parker, Earl Shanks, and Reed Dominey.

The local harriers attended all important meets in the southwest and made an excellent showing in many of them.

With practically no chance at first or second place at the Conference meet, the Axemen were slated to fight it out with Southwest Texas for third place.

Coach Key

Through the untiring efforts of Coach H. C. Key, the Stephen F. Austin tennis squad has made much progress. Working with a somewhat inexperienced but promising group of aspirants, Coach Key has developed a formidable team of netters. Returning from last year's squad was L. D. (Squash) Rulfs, Ford Hale, Jack Pennington, Branch Axley, and Lynn Hanna. Jimmie Graham, Gerald Millard, and Carl Brown are the newcomers to the team.

The squad played a number of matches both at home and away before the conference meet.

The Purple and White tennis warriors deserve much credit for their efforts on the courts. Poor facilities at the Piney Woods school hamper their efforts.

Just "how tall are the pines standing" on our campus?—the campus that is often described as the most beautiful in the United States. Over the college among those pines, President Birdwell officiated, with Mr. Wisely handling the budget.

In September, when the school year begins, there are get-acquainted gatherings around the school buildings, dormitory, and boarding houses that turn into gab fests for the remainder of the year. Football, club initiations, and materials for the science building all reeked of the newness in the autumn. Inside the boys' dormitory, it took the fellows one night to swing into activity that will continue until the next vacation.

"Prexy" Martin was happy over his prospects of a successful year as head of the student body; Mr. Cox was more than glad to unpack his 75 new band uniforms; Frances Ann Partin, the "littlest" Lumberjack, started practicing cheer leading; and the faculty looked most unhappy about the whole thing.

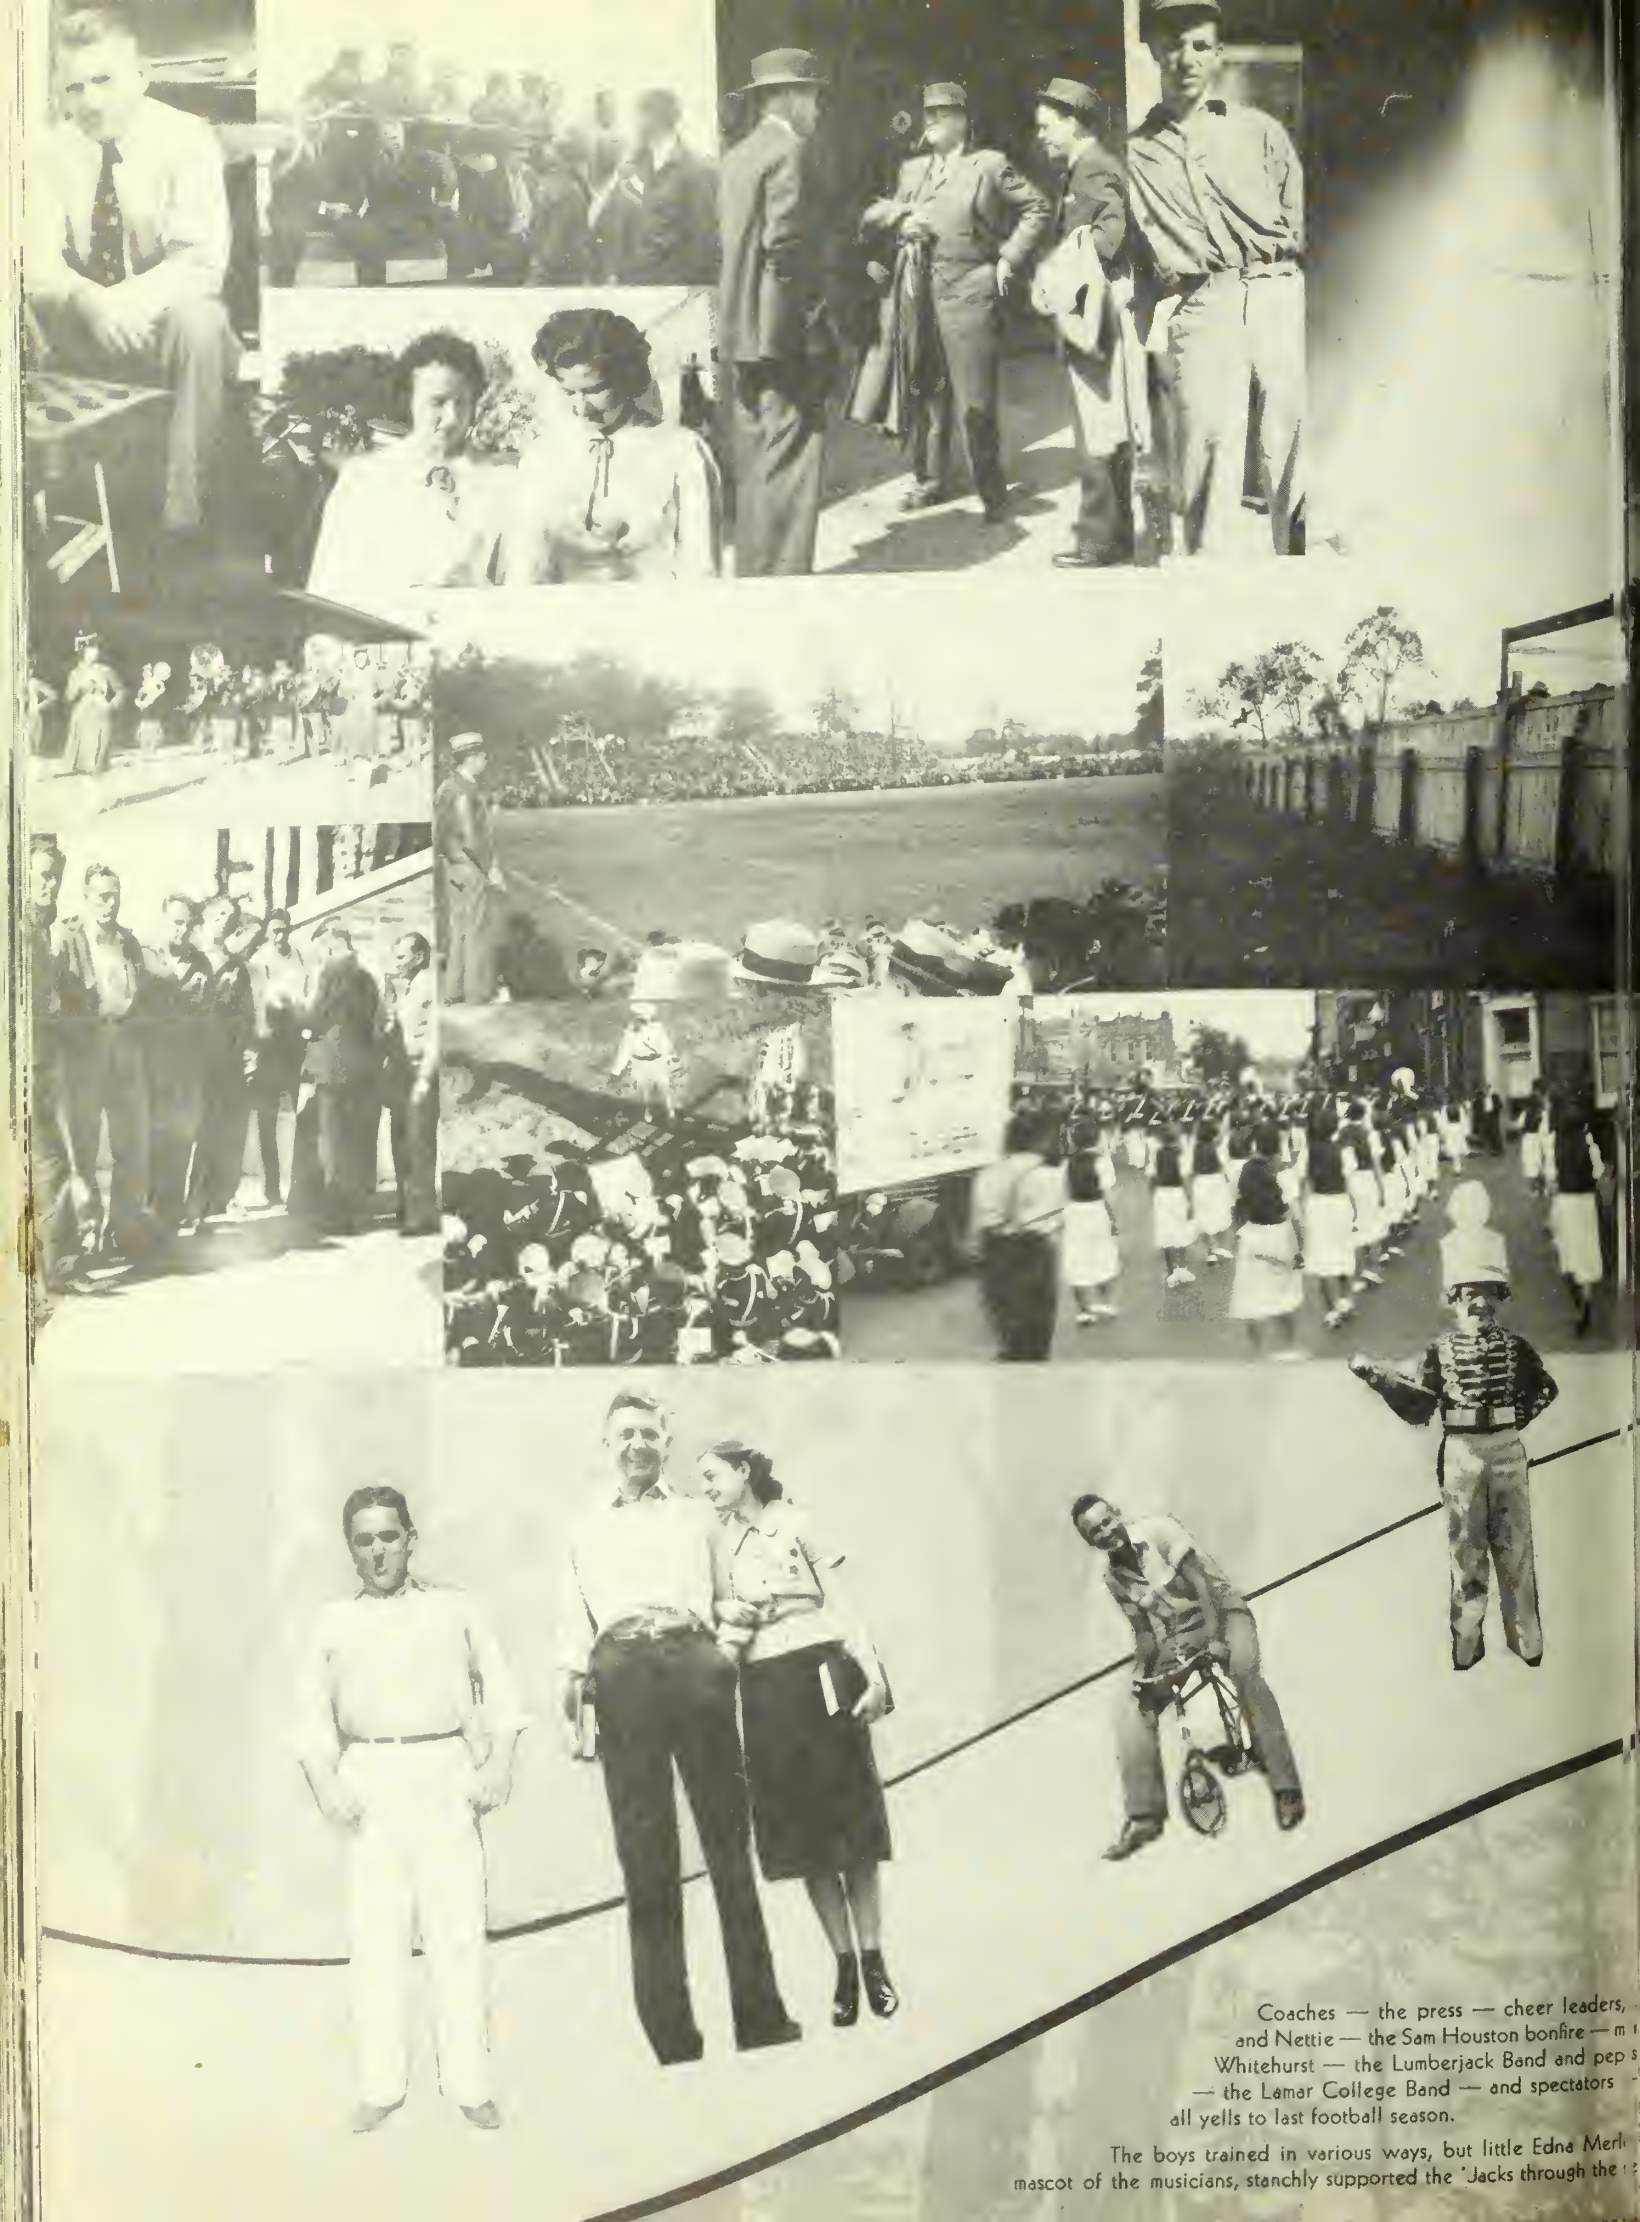

ODDS and ENDS depict a few of the things that go on in front of the camera.

Things of importance to me, are me, myself, and I, or so the fingers say. Public love letters, friends, and Mr. Cain are everyday occurrences—Purple and White Band is around on every occasion.

When "you are a freshman, by nature you are green
—you study each lesson, and write every theme.
But when you are a senior . . ." you don't have to dress up for an initiation.

When the school year was a million hours long, such things as a new road—already named "Speedway"—to ruin the effect of "Lover's Lane" was instigated and put under construction. Then there were registrations, initiations, meetings and recreation the semester finals that caused even Tony to play "Poor Pussy." At the New Year's reception things went in pairs—two Presidents and two shiny pates.

McCauley was indeed the "man of the hour" for he stayed in our school about that long; Prado acted the age that the House of David center inferred his size indicated; the camera-shy faculty made good targets; and all stopped to admire the debaters paying homage to their "Czar."

One day "Pat" and Ralph, "Rooster" and Nan, Seamons and Billie Bob, Chester and Nancy, "Chesty" and "Tubbo," "Andy" and Evie, McHenry and "Blondie," "Flash" and Wilma, Jack and Ella, Jimmie and Billie, Earl and Kathleen, Hazel and Cooper, Nettie and "Hoss," "Chirp" and "Cookie," Dan and Zelma, Helen and "Cow," Marion and Ruth, and Evelyn and "Wimpy" were seen together—everybody, including the cameraman, winked their respective eyes.

Last summer a lot of people came to Stephen F. Austin—school teachers, boys from A and M, some from just about everywhere—but “Shorty” went to Mexico. The class hours were early—the enrollment was large—shorts were chosen by Helen—and Dialville’s swimming pool by everybody—during the summer of 1937.

In November, Col. Charles Benter conducted his U. S. Navy Band in matinee and evening concerts that brought the bands of East Texas high schools to Nacogdoches in a Band Festival.

January 28 and 29, the Piney Woods Debate Tournament was introduced to Stephen F. Austin. Seventeen East Texas high schools participated, with Gladewater winning the boys' division, and Lufkin the girls'.

Freshmen have been gathered in the W. R. C. on sunny afternoons in autumn for the last two years. The occasion—Freshman intelligence examinations.

At the Piney Woods Project Show of December 11, the Hudson School Exhibit won second place. In the picture are R. E. Evers, teacher of vocational agriculture, and Miss Faye Westmoreland, home economics teacher and advisor for Future Homemakers of Area VII.

The Sawyer Apron-Overall All-College Dance brought a record-breaking crowd to the W. R. C. to hear Al Dunn and his famous orchestra "swing it."

Jacques Abram appeared in his eleventh concert on the campus, November 17, as National winner of the Federation of Music Clubs contest, and winner of the Schubert Memorial award, the greatest prize offered to young instrumentalists.

Blue Devils

The Blue Devils got off to a slow start this season, due partly to a mix-up in the practice schedule which kept several promising candidates from coming out. Coach Guy Massey started the season off with three lettermen and several promising Sophomores and Juniors with no experience. By mid-season the record of the Blue Devils was far from brilliant with only two wins. However, on the last lap they began to sprint and finished in a small blaze of glory with four wins out of six. The surprise of the season came with the defeat of the powerful Nat team, which showed the possibilities of the Blue Devils.

This year's lettermen are: James Trimble, Charles Kilpatrick, Hugh Lee Patrick, and J. W. Mitchell. Second year men are: Ross Smelley, Charles Lee Hill. Third year man: Ross Garrett.

Wow!

Near "the end of the trail" let the wanderer through the year, digress a bit with the faculty my theme. Mr. Pinson, the mathematician, is advocating the use of "common-horse-sense" and Mr. Hinds the profit in chicken raising. Mr. Upton raises a brow at the misuse of bugs, beetles, and such, and Dr. Chambers' never satisfied curiosity demands to know just what is in that picture. The little director of the band, Mr. Cox, is a golf enthusiast, and Mr. Sheley, with the patience of Job, instills French, Spanish, and German into United States minds. Of the physical education department there are golfers Murff, Willis, Abshear, and Shelton.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Dreams of an outstanding annual, one giving a complete record of the school year, have mostly turned to nothing. The editor, deeply conscious of the book's shortcomings, hopes only that the '38 Stone Fort will uphold the previous standards, and leave with the students an indelible impression of their carefree college days.

I wish to thank the following for their co-operation in editing the 1938 Stone Fort.
The Stone Fort Staff:

Mary Sharpe
Forest Fuller
Nathalee Ashley
Bertha Taylor
Janie Green
Nettie Lee Poore
Wilma Watkins
Harold Wisely
Ernest Ford
Doris Kilpatrick
Lucille Holland
Margueritte Partin
Jack Rodgers

Randolph Cox
Jack Aills
Bob Grayson
Helen Shattuck
Lucette Sharp
Mary Ella Bates
Harold Greer
Virginia Ellington
Miss Arlene Kilpatrick
Frances Ford
Woodrow Baker
Lorene Richards

The Administrative Staff of the College

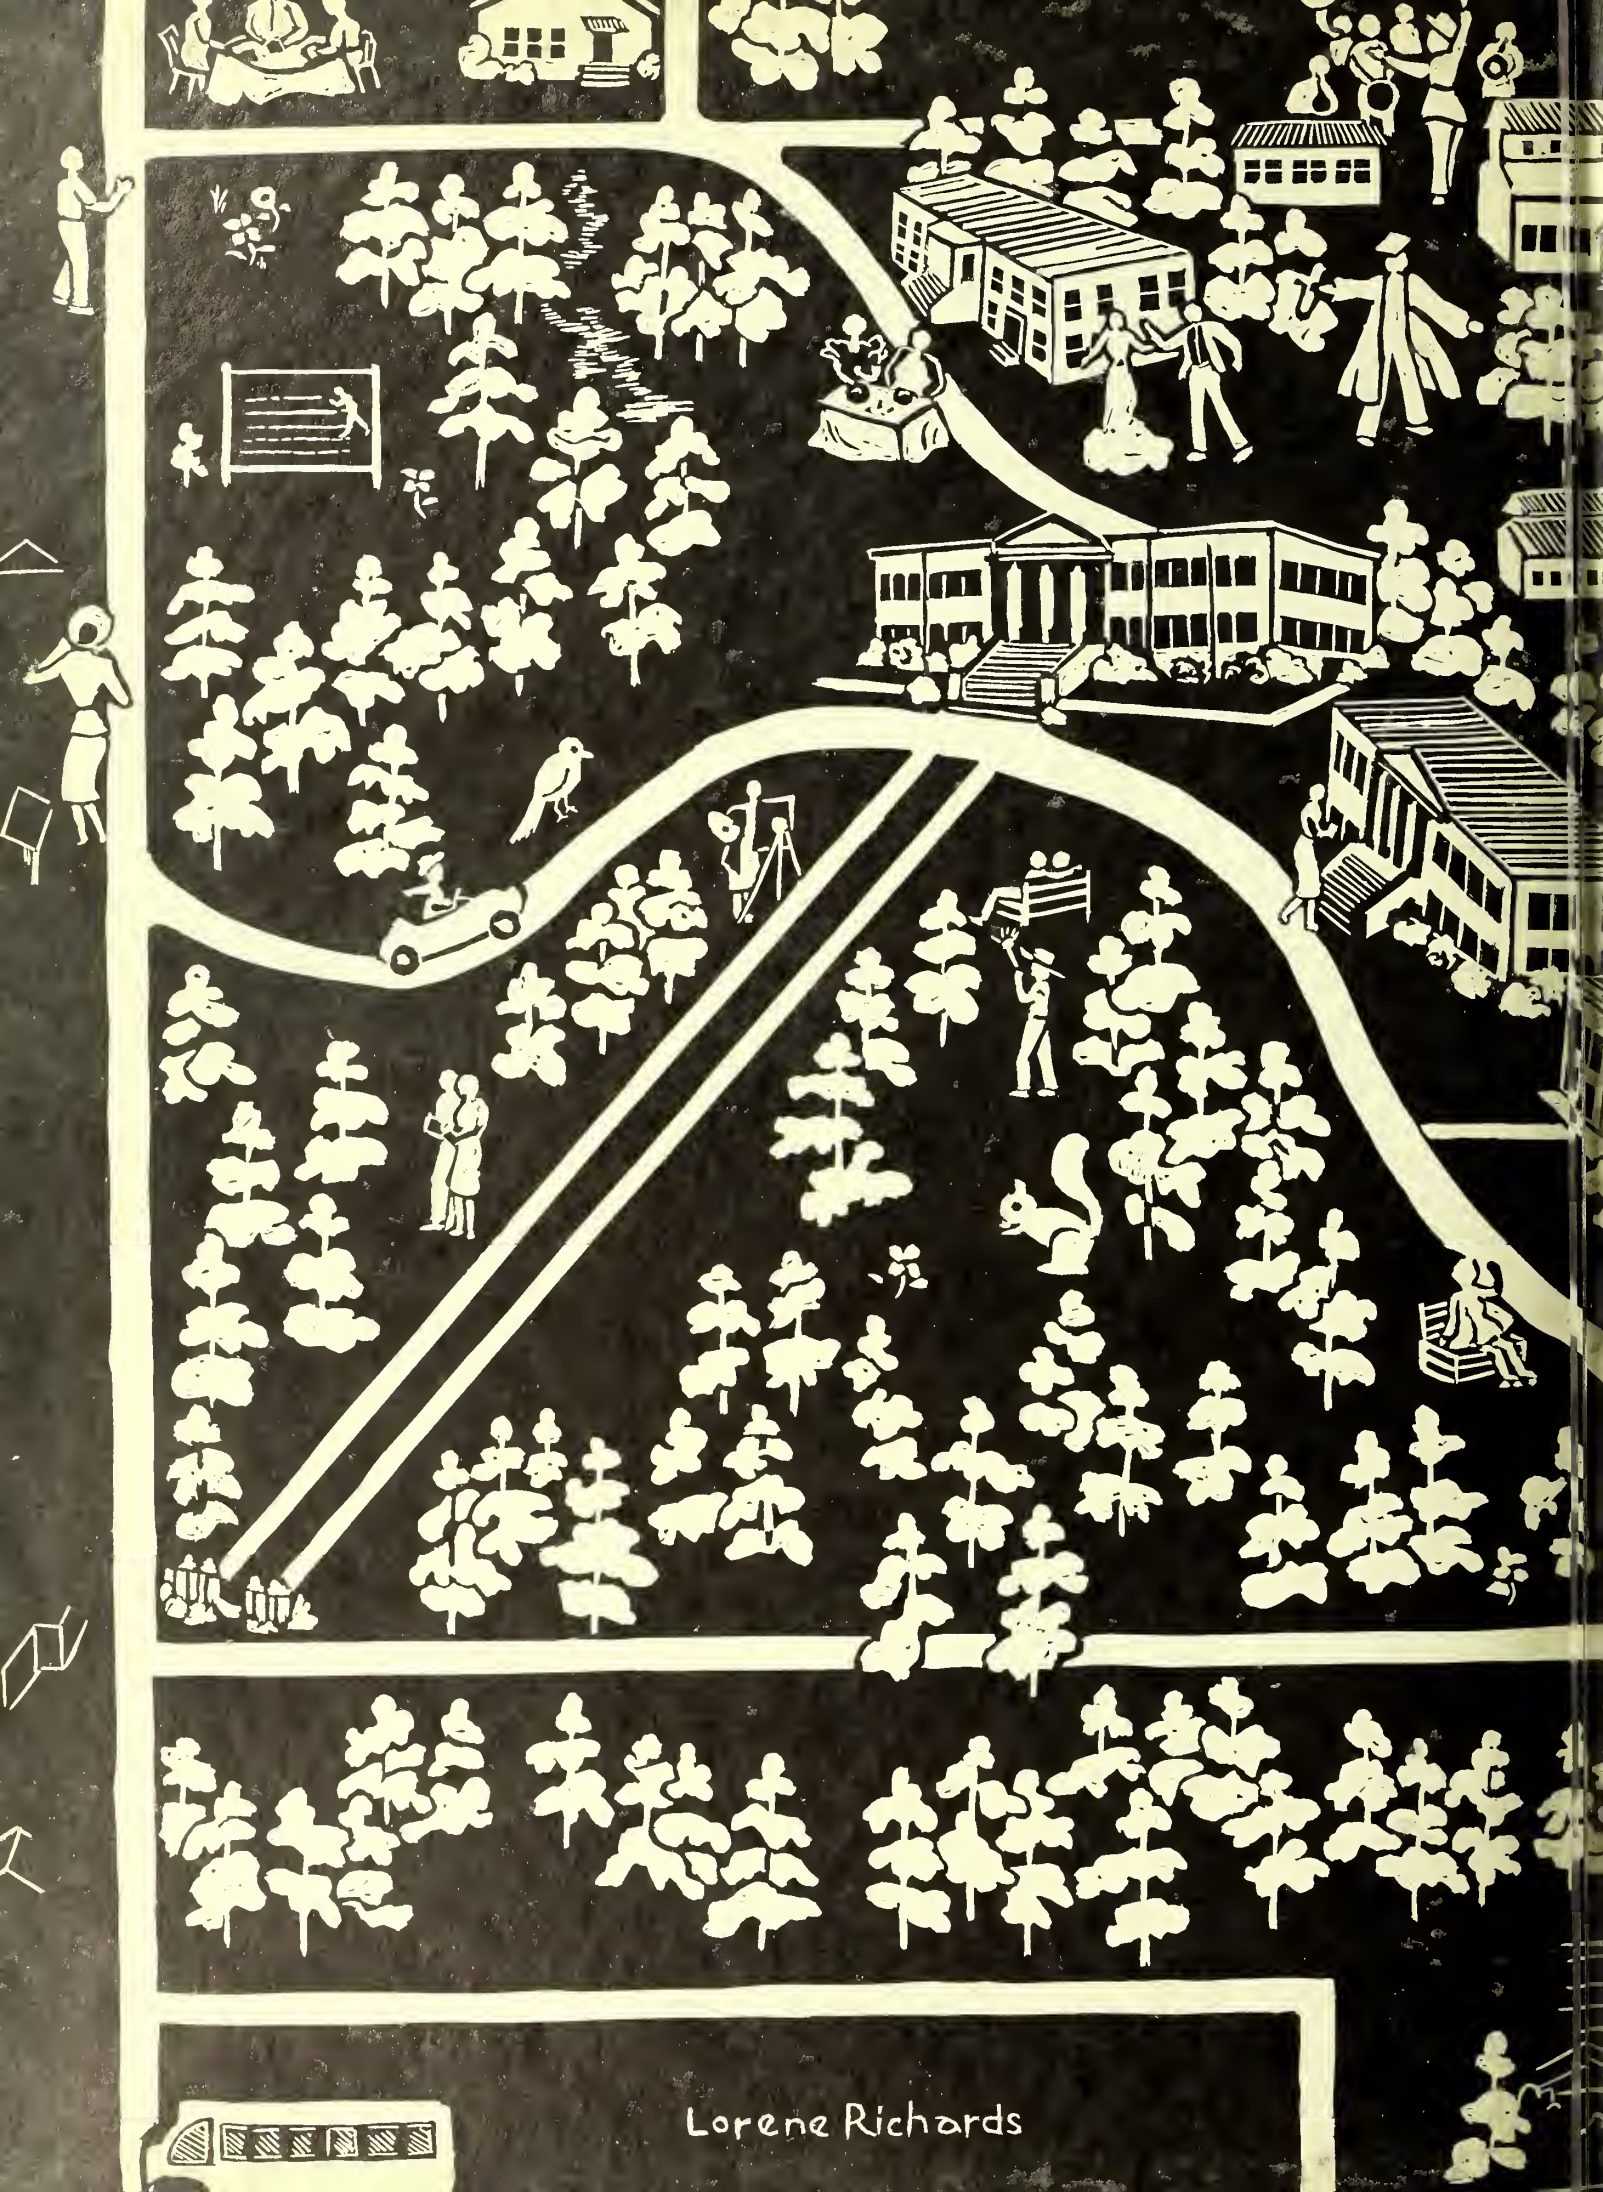

Miss Evalyn Abshear, Sponsor
Miss Minnie Martin, Art
The entire student body

Annually yours,

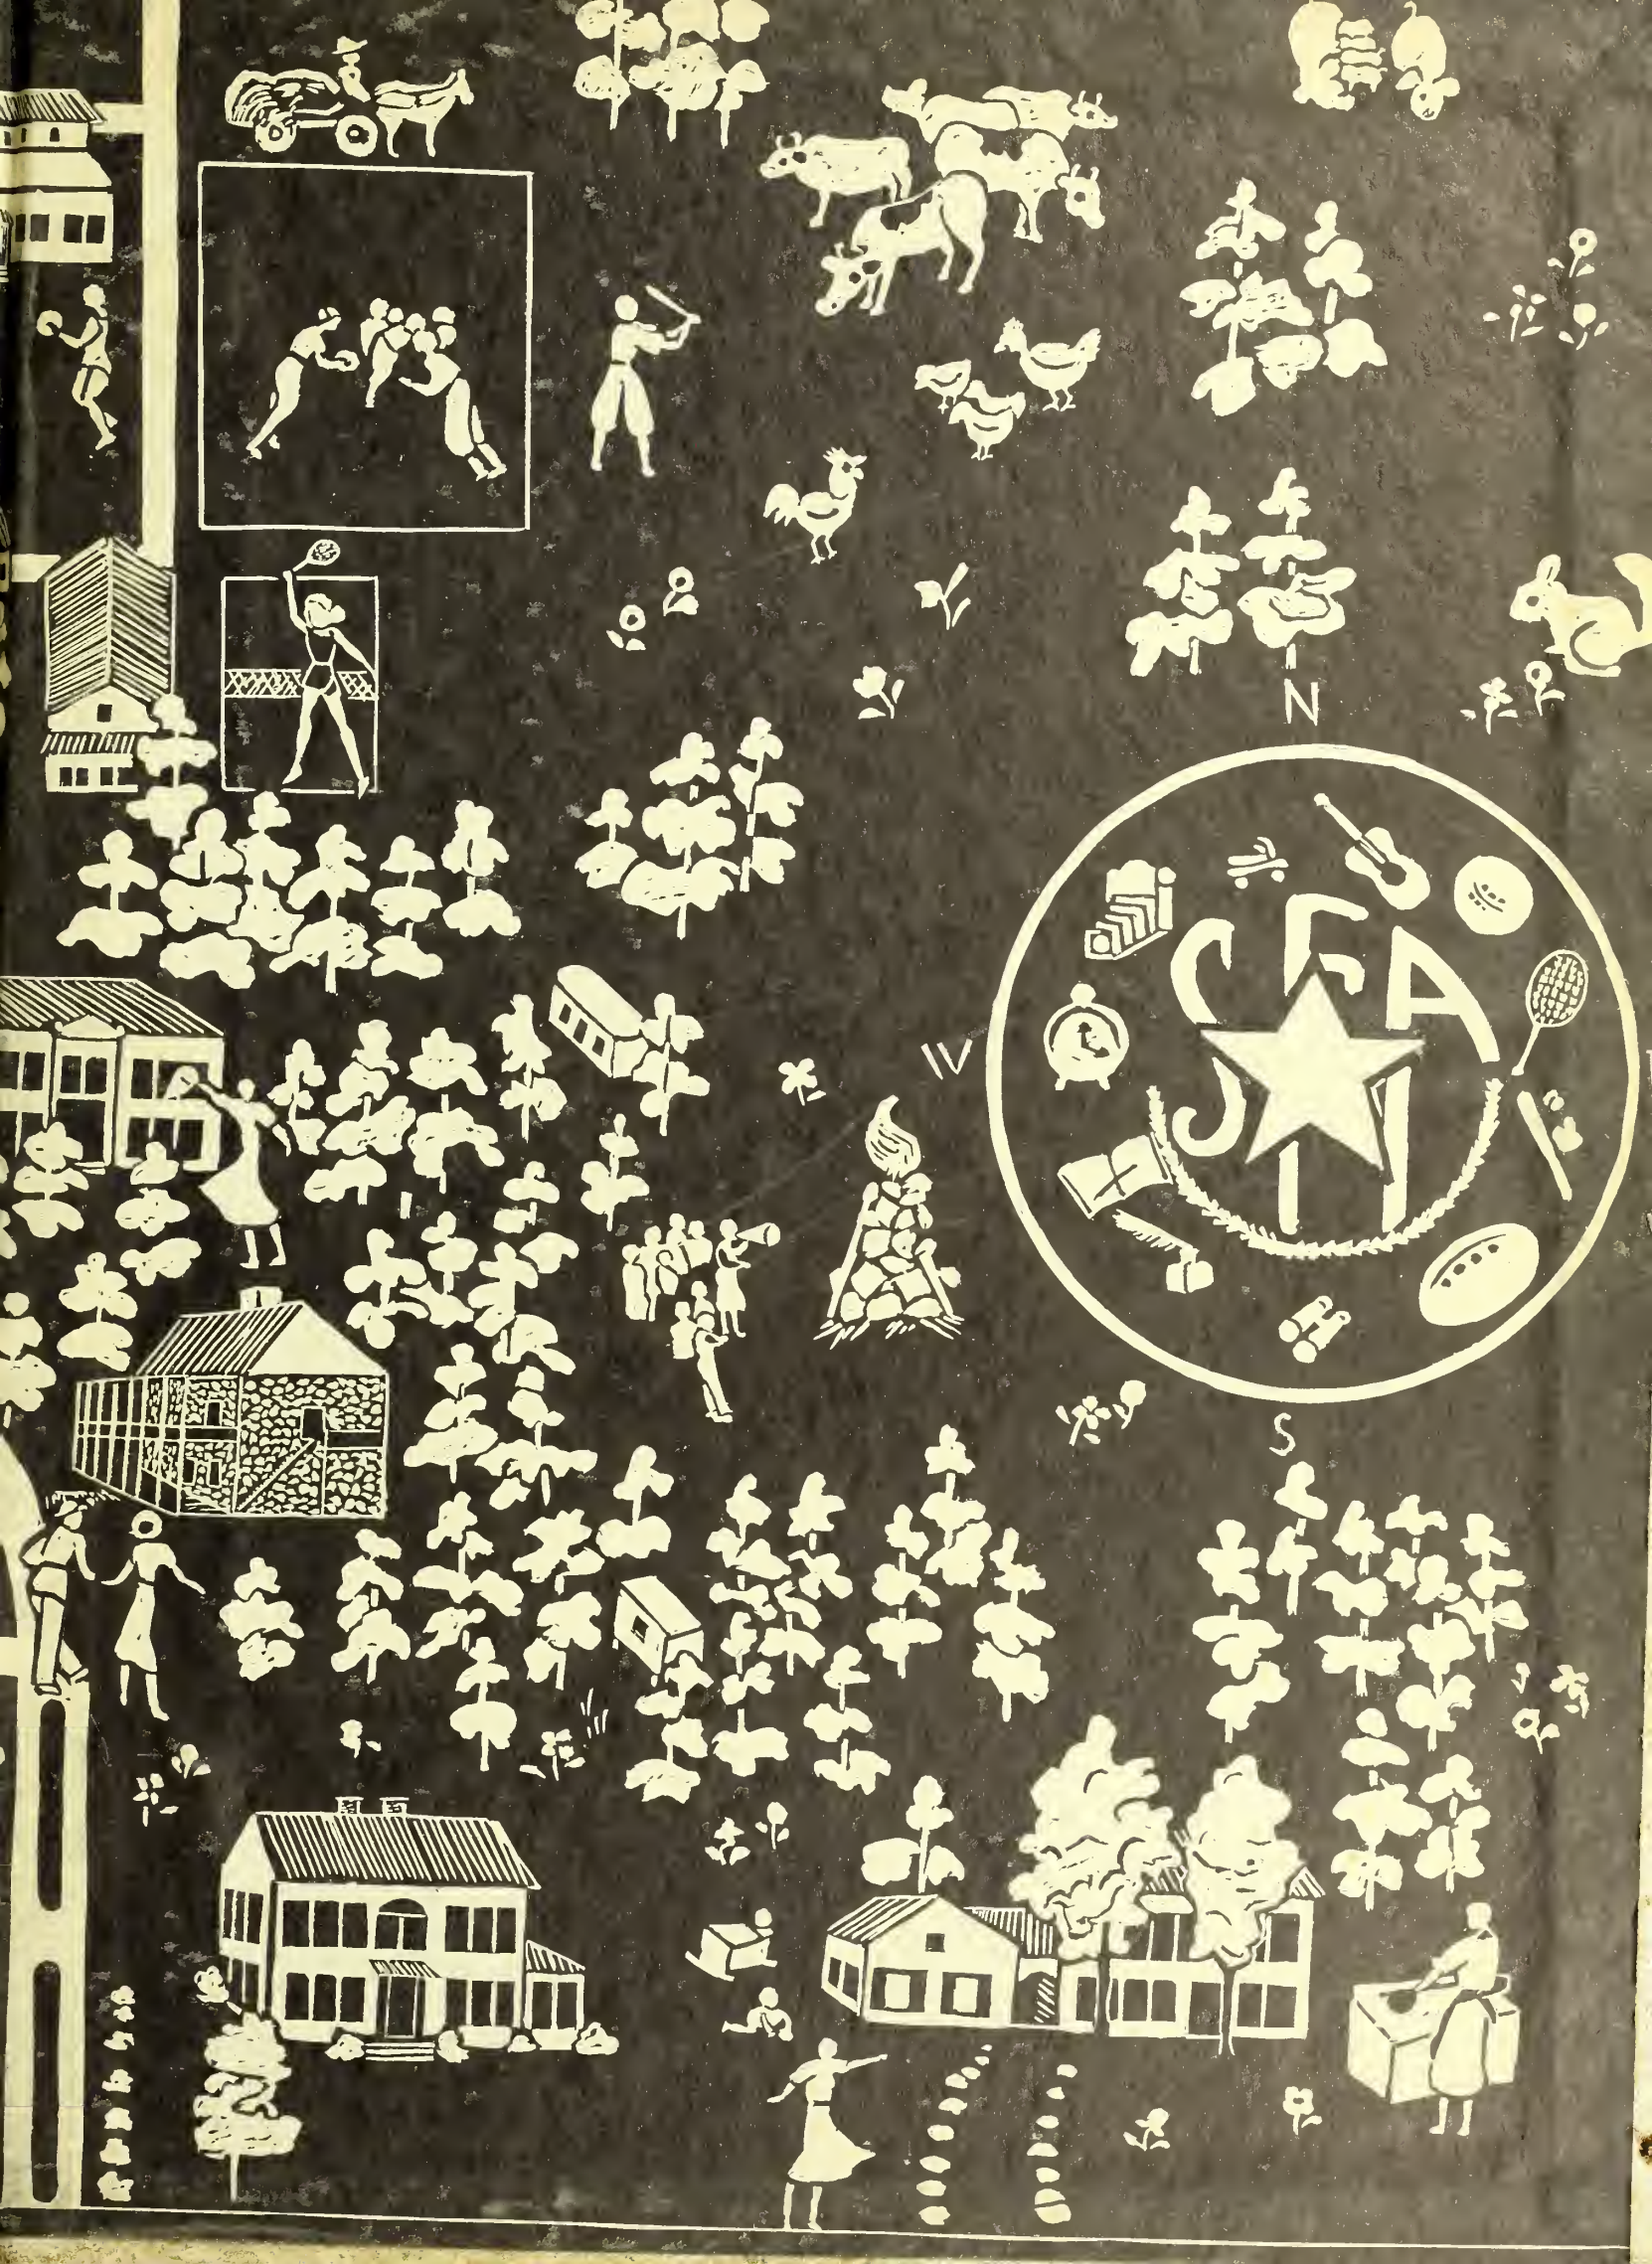

Francile Morrison
